

5-Degree Guarantee Rules

1. No purchase necessary.
2. How the contest works:

A) FOX 28 will solicit viewers to submit entries by signing up on our web site. Viewers must submit at time of sign-up: their Name, Full Address, and Telephone Number in order to be eligible to win. In the event that a name is drawn that doesn't have any or all of the above information, FOX28 reserves the right to draw an alternate winner. Winners must call FOX28 in the event that their name is drawn. (see below) All winners must be at least 18 years of age. Winners will be asked to verify their identity by showing a photo ID when they pick up their prize.

B) Each night during FOX28's Prime Time Evening newscast, a member of the FOX 28 Weather Team will forecast the high temperature for the next day. If the actual high temperature the next day, as measured by the National Weather Service at the South Bend Regional airport, turns out to be more than five degrees away from the forecasted high for the day (either higher or lower) then a random drawing from among all those who have registered on the FOX 28 web site will be conducted. The contestant whose name is drawn will have the opportunity to win the cash prize that has accumulated to that point. The contestant's name will be announced during the newscast. To win the prize, the announced contestant will have until the end of that night's Prime Time newscast to call the station and identify him/her self by confirming their registration information in order to claim the prize. A toll-free telephone number will be announced on the air for the contestant to call when their name is announced. If the announced winner does not call by the end of the newscast to claim the prize, the prize money returns to the contest jackpot and continues growing from that point $28 a day, until the forecast high is again off by more than five degrees, at which point another random drawing will occur following the procedures described above. Contestants who fail to claim their prize in the allotted time will be re-entered for future random selection.

C) The contest applies to FOX28's official 5 Degree forecasts only. No other forecast issued by FOX 28 employees, The National Weather Service or any other organization will be considered as the criteria for which the contest is judged. Please Note: the official 5 Degree Guaranteed Forecast will be announced on FOX28 News at 10:00 each night. This will be the ONLY forecasted high that will be used in determining the 5 Degree Guarantee.

D) The Cash Prize will be in the form of a roll-over jackpot. Each night, a member of the FOX 28 weather team will forecast a high temperature for the following day. If that temperature turns out to be within five degrees Fahrenheit of the actual high for that day, as measured by the National Weather Service at the South Bend Regional airport, then $28 (twenty-eight dollars) is added to the jackpot. If the predicted high is not within five degrees Fahrenheit, then the amount accumulated in the jackpot up to that point will constitute the prize to be awarded. Each time a prize is awarded, the jackpot reverts back to the starting amount of $28. The jackpot could build up into the hundreds and thousands of dollars until such time as our forecast is off by more than five degrees and a contestant wins the prize. Contestants have an opportunity to win when we are inaccurate.

E) For purposes of this contest, the high temperature for a given day will be the highest temperature recorded and published by the National Weather Service at the South Bend Regional airport from midnight through the actual time the contest is run. (Typically the 10pm hour.)

3. Odds of winning the grand prize are based on the number of entries received.

4. WSJV will conduct the random drawing of contestant names and WSJV will be the final judge on all matters related to this contest. The judges' decisions are final, binding and conclusive on all matters. By entering this contest, entrants accept and agree to be bound by these rules and the decisions of the judges relative to the contest.

5. In the event of non-compliance, an alternative winner may be selected.

6. Winner's name & likeness may be used for publicity purposes without further compensation.

7. Employees of WSJV and their families, its subsidiaries, divisions and related companies, its promotional agencies and all participating promotional partners are not eligible.

8. Taxes are the responsibility of the winner. Anyone receiving more than $600 in cash and/or prizes will receive a 1099 form from WSJV in January. Winners must provide their social security number to FOX 28 for tax purposes.

9. FOX 28 reserves the right to settle all disputes and to change and alter the details of the contest as circumstances merit.

10. Winners will be required to pick up their prizes at the FOX 28 Studios, 58096 C.R. 7 South, Elkhart Indiana between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday or through other times by special arrangement. Winners will be required to show photo identification to receive the prize. Winners will have 90 days to claim the prize. If a winner does not claim his/her prize within that time, the money will revert back to FOX 28 for use at the station's discretion. Contestants are not eligible to win again for one year after their selection and confirmation as a winner. After that one year period, the contestant's name will be re-entered for future random selection.
